

|  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|--|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  | Object: Kurgäste stehen um die sprudelnde St. Joseph-Quelle Museum: Heimatmuseum und -Archiv Bad BodendorfBahnhofstraße 1553489 Bad Bodendorf02642 980793 - 0172 6509165archiv@bad-bodendorf.de Collection: Bodendorfer Quellen Inventory number: 1800_B_2-07 |
|--|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

Description

Foto von Kurgästen, die um die sprudelnden St. Joseph-Quelle stehen. Die Quelle ist gefaßt in ein ca. 2 m hohes Rohr.

Basic data

|                     |                  |
|---------------------|------------------|
| Material/Technique: | Fotopapier       |
| Measurements:       | H x B 56 x 82 mm |

Events

|                            |       |                                  |
|----------------------------|-------|----------------------------------|
| Created                    | When  | 1914                             |
|                            | Who   |                                  |
|                            | Where | Bad Bodendorf                    |
|                            | When  |                                  |
|                            | Who   |                                  |
|                            | Where | St. Josef-Quelle (Bad Bodendorf) |
| [Relationship to location] |       |                                  |

Keywords

- Kurgast
- Photography
- Spring